Defining sensational Brighton convenience just a short stroll to amazing local shopping and renowned schools, A delightful single level, double brick 3 bedroom, 2 bathroom, character home with thoughtful contemporary updates ticks all the right boxes.

Located in a quiet street, just off Bay Street, Brighton. The property offers two large open plan living areas, unique quirky character including the use of wonderful internal red brick, high ceilings throughout and a good sized grassed garden.

The master bedroom is of a size that is reminiscent of when homes were built on a large scale with wooden floors, high ceilings, a walk in robe as well as newly refurbished ensuite. The other two bedrooms lead off the second of the 2 living spaces, have views of the back garden, high ceilings, built in robes and polished floorboards. Other features include a newly fitted out central bathroom which has a shower over bath, single basin and separate toilet, a separate laundry and ducted heating throughout. There is off street parking for 2 cars.

Walk down to the popular Bossy Boots cafe which is just on the corner, while an array of fantastic cafes, restaurants, cinema, and Coles supermarket on Bay Street means all your bases are covered. You're also within walking distance to Firbank Grammar School, Brighton Grammar School, local parks, buses, and North Brighton Station.
